Introduction

This report is based on a positive vision of world peace, and the belief that each individual has the potential within to make a significant contribution to world peace. The basis of inner peace is self-esteem and self-knowledge, and when enough individuals are self-aware, they will act in accordance with natural laws to promote harmony around them, and the result will be world peace.

Good will win out over evil, and the goodness within yourself will manifest through your individual personality. This report is designed to draw your attention to your potential, your unique opportunities for expressing it, and your ability to bring about harmony around you. Some of your ability is based on gifts which you already have, which are easy for you to draw upon. You also have the willpower to dissolve any blockages which may be standing in the way of your clear vision of the possibilities of harmony and peace. Start with a positive attitude, and you will be favorably surprised at what you can achieve and what you can overcome. Love yourself, and you are already creating world peace.

Each person's astrological chart maps out a divinely created plan for that individual. It tells what you were put on this earth to do. You can learn what your own, unique mission is and then you can rejoice in carrying it out. The utmost good which you can imagine can become your reality. Then you can spread the good news to others and awaken them to their own, inner Light. All persons are created from the divine, and we are moving back to the divine.

Life is a celebration of both our common awareness of the Light and our God-given birthright to an individual identity which is uniquely ours and which, when fully realized, will shine as its own Light and harmonize with all the other Lights on the planet. It will be like the vivid and beautiful colours of the spectrum all merging into White Light, and then radiating from the souls of all individuals at once.

Astrology is the study of the Astral Plane. The Astral Plane is the link between the everyday world of the manifested, Physical Plane and our higher planes of awareness, from which we can draw insight into how to improve our affairs in the physical realm. If we perceive a problem in the everyday world, such as a lack of peace, we cannot always solve it on that level, because the everyday world is made up of opposing polarities. We need to rise above the physical plane to see that these opposites are reconcilable. For example, if one person is male and another is female, they appear on the surface to be of opposite polarities but on the higher level, they are both human; they can communicate with each other; and they can enjoy working together for their common benefit.

Each individual has opposing polarities too, such as a right side and a left side, but through the higher awareness of our brains we get our two sides working together. Our brain has two hemispheres: The left hemisphere is responsible for logical thought and governs the right side of our body. The right hemisphere is responsible for creative, lateral thinking and rules the left side of our body. When we operate "from centre" - that is, when our higher brain gets our logical thought and our creative thought to work together harmoniously - then we come up with our best, most creatively intelligent output. When we use our full potential, when we know whom we are and believe in ourselves, then we create maximum harmony with those around us and, on the transpersonal level, we come up with our best solutions for world peace.

On the astral level each individual has command of both polarities. For example, we each have a Sun sign and a Moon sign. We also each have a Venus and a Mars sign, regardless of whether we are male or female on the physical plane. So, if we tune into whom we are astrologically, we begin to reach a level of awareness where we have transcended the polarities of the physical plane. We can see how we are each an embodiment of the harmonious balancing of polarities. We are born with this unity already in place. We just need to know how to use our Sun sign and our Moon sign, and our other planets, to our best advantage in our daily lives, so that by being our true selves, we will be bringing about peace.

Each person's method of using his or her Sun and Moon signs, and other planets, will be different, because we were each born at a different time and place on the Earth, where we're influenced by different combinations of influences by the other planets. On this astral plane, some of us will be contributing a more masculine interpretation of solar energy (if our Sun is in a fire or air sign) and the rest of us will be showing the world a more feminine way of looking at the Sun (if our Sun is in an earth or water sign). Also, depending on our Moon sign, we will each have our own way of interpreting the Moon's type of energy and, in our mission on Earth, we will be contributing this much-needed awareness to our own planet's evolution. We are all important, and we are all here to be ourselves, at our highest possible level of understanding. We are here to help our planet achieve its divine purpose, and to do so is perfectly natural to us.

Just as there are particular points of strength and prominence in your astrological chart, there are strategic points on the Earth's surface for the achievement of world peace. For example, this Report is being written in the city of Toronto which, along with London and Los Angeles, are important world energy centres (or chakras) for the development of international understanding. London is the world centre for intelligence and Los Angeles is the world centre for creativity. Toronto is the centre for unity, or creative intelligence, or the resolution of polarities. The name "Toronto" means "meeting place" in native Indian. Therefore, it is part of the mission of those who are familiar with the earth energy of Toronto to spread to the rest of the world the message that polarities can be resolved and peace can be created.

I once obtained a computer printout as to what was going on in the news on the day of my birth. It said that, on that date in 1950, Ralph Bunche received the Nobel Peace Prize. I later learned that he was one of the founders of the United Nations and that he had been successful in negotiating a truce between the Jews and the Palestinians in Israel in 1949. He did this by working very hard to listen to the points of view of both sides and looking for a common ground. He said "Talking is better than shooting". He remained calm himself and successfully brought about an armistice. Treaties were signed between Israel and each of Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria. So, the very positive message which can be brought into the present day is: Peace is possible.

Differences can be overcome and understanding can be reached through conscious effort and communication. Look for what you have in common with your neighbour and build on it.

My message as an astrologer to you is: Whatever day you were born on is divinely significant. Your birth data can be the key to your realizing how important your presence in the world is. Each person is uniquely important.

Within each other person we can see our own, divine essence mirrored, because what we have in common is our potential to bring out the very best in ourselves and each other.

On the day that I decided to write the World Peace Report and I began writing it, October 17,2002, there were many trine aspects, which confers harmony. I hope that your World Peace Report helps you to fully develop your potential for contributing to world peace and harmony.

Chapter 1: Rising Sign

Ascendant in Cancer:

Your outward personality, through which your Inner Light and all of the various planetary influences in your chart are expressed, is nurturing, protective and emotionally receptive. The members of your family and others would feel that they can come to you if they are in need of care. You would, through your outward expression, be able to inspire others to care more about themselves and to create a more caring world. You would be good at showing others how to be more sensitive to those who are most vulnerable, especially little children.

Chapter 2: The Sun

Sun in Gemini:

You are a born communicator, and as such you can do much to get people to understand one another. You would be good at learning other languages and fitting into other cultures, because of your adaptability and quick mind. You would have ability as a reporter for the media or as a teacher. It is important that you get the education of which you are capable, so that you will have a good opinion of yourself, because you will then be able to communicate positive expectations about other persons too. For example, if you refer to others as "friends" rather than as "enemies", you will be turning them into friends, because the choice of words has a very powerful effect in creating what the words represent.

Sun in the 11th house:

You have a natural talent to be a positive, constructive revolutionary - that is, someone who leads others towards their independence in a peaceful way. You have a great love of life itself, and a way of bringing your humanitarian, idealistic, egalitarian values into being. You are able to lead groups and to make friends everywhere. You set a very positive example of how an intellectual, tolerant approach can have results. You can do much to teach others how to love one another.

Sun Sextile Moon:

Because your parents would have got along harmoniously, you would have had the opportunity to understand how the male and female facets within your own personality can work together well. You would, therefore, get along well with the opposite sex. Use your willpower to take advantage of the many opportunities which you have around you to promote harmony in the larger community and in the world. You have a valuable insight into how peace can work, so take advantage of it.

Sun Sextile Mars:

You have an unusual ability to bring the Light into actual, physical manifestation, because your willpower combines with your outer expression in a very favorable way. You are very creative in the way you can visualize a goal and then achieve it. If your goal were to lead people towards the actual accomplishment of world peace, you would be very effective indeed. Work on remaining spiritually attuned, so that you will not fall back into taking your power for granted, as its proper purpose is to uplift others.

Sun Opposition Neptune:

You need to resolve the apparent difference between your ego and self-expression on one hand and your compassion and selflessness on the other. As you become more self-aware and more spiritually attuned, you will realize that, really, there is no conflict here at all. That is because it is of the highest, spiritual order to express yourself in a giving, caring way. Those who do things for others deserve to feel good about themselves. You can find great joy in observing how someone whom you have helped is happier and more at peace and in knowing that it was you who chose to respond with kindness to that person's need.

Chapter 3: The Moon

Moon in Aries:

You tend to act impulsively based on your emotions, but if you are living in the Light, this can be a positive thing. That is, if your right-brain is highly developed and you are in tune with your higher intuition the sudden actions you take will be divinely inspired. For example, you would trust your own intuition to tell you that the people who say that there cannot be world peace are wrong, and you would go ahead and take constructive action. You are naturally positive and cheerful in your emotions, and you are able to lift others out of their tendency to wallow in the negativity of the past and to get them to see that every day is a new day.

Moon in the 9th house:

You may live in a country far away from your birth and, if so, you would have an opportunity to promote harmony among different cultures. Your upbringing is likely to have given you a sound, traditional religious background and good values which would serve you well anywhere. Make sure that you promote the true essence of religion, which is love and tolerance, rather than give others the impression that you think that your beliefs are better than theirs. As long as you think positive thoughts, you will be able to uplift the faith of many.

Moon Conjunct Mars:

You are assertive in protecting those about whom you have strong feelings, such as your family and your cultural group. This is constructive as long as those whom you are defending genuinely need to be protected. However, make sure that you see beyond your own feelings to realize that other people have their families and cultural groups too, and that they feel the same way about theirs as you do about yours. Be willing to work out compromises, so that it can be a win-win situation for all.

Moon Conjunct Jupiter:

You are very caring and generous, both to your own people and people from other lands. You would enjoy learning about the beliefs and practises of other cultures and then applying them to help your own people, because you know that it does not matter where an idea comes from, as long as it is a good idea.

You would be equally open-hearted about sharing your own culture's knowledge with persons of other cultures, and you would find a mutual, nurturing bond with them.

Moon Square Saturn:

Although you may have faced harsh circumstances concerning your mother when you were young, your life experiences have taught you to be very rational and self-reliant. While others may fall to pieces in a crisis, you are able to remain emotionally detached and carry on with the essential things which need to be done. You would be able to show others how to have realistic expectations and how not to be greedy for too much and, in that way, to maintain a peaceful society.

Moon Trine Neptune:

You have talent as a psychic healer, of both individuals and the planet as a whole. You are able to tap the highest, most subtle, compassionate energies and use them to nurture others and uplift them spiritually. You would be able to send healing light to environmentally harmed areas of the world, such as where there has been an oil spill. Make the most of your special abilities; you can make a very important contribution.

Chapter 4: Mercury

Mercury in Gemini:

Your quick mind and superior communication skills would be a real asset in any peace venture. You learn very quickly and would catch on to what other people are saying instantly. You would then be able to help them understand each other's position. You have an amazing talent for learning other languages. You usually associate with other intellectual people, on a level which puts you above any disagreements or misunderstandings, and you would enjoy traveling around lecturing about peace and listening to other people's ideas about it.

Mercury in the 11th house:

You would be a very effective participant in any study group aimed at sharing humanitarian ideas and solutions. You could organize a group where people could each talk about what they have done to further world peace in their own area, and everyone could learn from each other. You could also give talks or write speeches on the positive value of tolerance, hope and sharing. You would have a real flair of genius for working on a computer.

Chapter 5: Venus

Venus in Cancer:

You are motivated to maintain peace around you by your love of your family. Your mother would have given you much love and protection, which you are now able to pass on to your loved ones. If there are any areas in your early childhood where you feel that you needed more nurturing, take the time to nurture yourself now, or seek out the type of support you need, so that you will become clear of any such blockages to your deserved potential. You are a kind, loving person, and as long as you take good care of yourself, you will be at your very best in helping others.

Venus in the 12th house:

Because you are kind and sympathetic, you are able to reach out to those most in need and to help them feel included. Your lifestyle is likely to be very quiet and peaceful, as you would enjoy being alone to follow artistic pursuits or just to be one with nature. You have an unusual ability to tap the resources of your unconscious mind and to bring in very subtle, peaceful vibrations through meditation.

Venus Square Uranus:

You would have insights into the challenge of how to take the concept of peace and make it universal. On one hand, it is possible to have the security of a peaceful life if one has enough money and, on the other hand, it would take a lot of money to ensure that everyone has enough. Know that you need to have enough security yourself, if you are going to make others secure. Know that others have more money than you - unless you are incredibly rich - and that, if you look after your own security first, you will be in a position to approach them, to encourage them to help those in need, and that this is the best way to help those in need the most.

Chapter 6: Mars

Mars in Aries:

You need lots of physical action, and this drive to actually get things done could be channelled towards actually achieving world peace. If there are others who are definitely behaving in such a way as to interfere with the peaceful efforts of others, you would be good at subduing them and preventing them from causing harm. With your physical ability, you might be able to get involved with something like the Olympics, or any other competition which brings countries together. You have the initiative to start new peace projects and to get others to participate.

Mars in the 9th house:

You have the potential to be an effective religious or philosophical crusader, provided that you first make sure that what you are promoting is the underlying truth and higher ideals of your belief system, rather than just the parts which pit the people of one religion against another. Start by travelling and living among the people of different cultures, so that you can see the good in them first-hand, with an open mind. Then you will have higher insight into what will bring them together, while still preserving their cultural identities.

Mars Conjunct Jupiter:

You are a firm believer in putting your ideals into action. You do not just preach about world peace; you get involved in actual work to bring it about. Make sure in doing this that you do not promote your own partisan beliefs without considering that others have their own biases too, or the result will not be peaceful. Find a cause where you can use your tremendous, positive energy and enthusiasm to uplift others.

Mars Trine Neptune:

You have a special gift for being able to channel in healing, compassionate energy from the higher realms and using it to uplift individuals and the planet as a whole. Remember that you were meant to use this gift to help others, and do not take it for granted. Keep your subconscious mind clear of any impure substances and neutralize any past, emotional hurts, so that you will be a clear channel for the greater good to manifest.

Mars Opposition Pluto:

You need to integrate your impulsive desire for direct, physical action with your awareness of the consequences of your actions. The key is to get to the point in your spiritual development where your actions are aligned with higher, spiritual purpose. At that point, you will be able to achieve great deeds which will have far-reaching, positive effects. You are personally in tune with one of the greatest blockages to long-term world peace. This is that others have not dealt with the issue of the long-term effects of their selfish actions. They have not been as aware as you have of the importance of this and you have something valuable to contribute to the world by making others more conscious of it.

Chapter 7: Jupiter and Saturn

Jupiter in Aries:

You have a rare potential for showing others how their actions can be based on the highest, spiritual good. This is because of your high level of energy and optimism. You would be good at promoting the kind of sports which encourage good values such as teamwork, setting goals and working towards them, and physical fitness. You might be able to make a meaningful contribution to the Olympics, or any other competition which encourages the best in individuals and the coming together of different countries in positive, constructive events.

Jupiter in the 9th house:

You are naturally very broad-minded, and you can build on this potential through higher education, religious study and foreign travel. You have a strong sense of a personal mission to uplift others spiritually, and you may acquire a top position in a religious or educational institution. You would further world peace by spreading faith, tolerance and wisdom. Your optimism can help many to see the Light, and then they will want to join you in transforming the lives of others.

Jupiter Square Saturn:

You know that encouraging world peace requires a great deal of willpower to overcome obstacles from the past, but you remain optimistic and energetic about doing this. One of the obstacles may be that individuals are entrenched in perceived differences of religion or philosophy, but you are able to show them that positive faith is what unites all persons, regardless of their background or beliefs. The honest, higher value, from which all persons can benefit, is to work at peace for all.

Saturn in Cancer:

You are very able to take a rational, practical approach to the protection of your family, community or country. You do this by making logical, well-thought-out plans ahead of time, so as to be prepared for any unexpected challenges. In this way, you create ongoing security and peace without disruptions. You are motivated to do this by your own need to be protected, and you build on this experience to protect others too.

Saturn in the 12th house:

You have a talent for providing the practical necessities of life to the poor. You are serious about getting others to behave compassionately towards the disadvantaged, and you have the potential to set a fine example for them. You realize that the reputation of a city or country is very closely linked to how the persons most in need are treated.

Chapter 8: Uranus, Neptune and Pluto

Uranus in Libra:

What a wonderful combination for working on the cause of peace! Uranus gives you a sense of tolerance of all persons and of the Universal Light within all of us. Libra gives you a sense of justice and equality. The result is that you have an unusual ability to get people to come together and discuss their differences peacefully. You work on the highest mental level, and you very agreeably raise others' aspirations to the highest ideals of peace.

Uranus in the 4th house:

You may like to have groups of people meet in your home, and you would be good at making those who might otherwise be deprived of family life feel included. Those who feel that they have a home base would then be motivated to promote peaceful ideals in their daily lives. You are concerned about the cause of preserving your heritage and roots, and this is an admirable goal provided that you always respect the heritage and roots of others.

Neptune in Sagittarius:

You were born into a generation of people who were capable of great spiritual insights and actions. There was generosity towards those in need; meditation on the greatest prosperity on all levels of awareness; and spiritual channelling as to how to uplift the planet to a higher cosmic plane. These insights provided an inspiring vision for the future, so that the optimism would carry people through more challenging times and allow them to keep bringing in the Light.

Neptune in the 5th house:

You would be able to inspire people to create peace as an artist, perhaps by invoking compassion for children. As a psychic, you would be able to send light to others, so as to bring out their potential. You would be a caring leader who could help elevate the planet to a higher, subtler level of awareness.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

You were born into an age when there was a subtle awareness that world peace could be created if individuals chose in large enough numbers to treat one another with compassion and kindness. There were many spiritual visions of peace, which appeared in music, art and mass communication. The knowledge of how to bring about peace was there, but it needed to be brought down into the physical plane of actual action, for there to be enough love and spiritual regeneration in everyday life. The willpower was needed to overcome addictions and material attachments, in order to make the wisest use of the readily available, profound, channelled, higher insights.

Pluto in Libra:

You were born right into a time when there were great, transformational studies being made to further world peace. Countries which had previously been opponents made peace with one another and decided to cooperate with each other for their common good. Barriers were removed and communication was encouraged. On the personal level, people made relationship contracts with each other, in which they spelled out what they were agreeing to in advance, so that the needs of both parties could be upheld equally and peacefully.

Pluto in the 3rd house:

This is a very powerful position for being able to use the mass media to create peace. Words have a very powerful effect and, if they are chosen carefully, they can have a very beneficial, even transformative effect. Think of the number of times the media sensationalizes stories by using words which have a connotation of war, and how influential it would be if they used words suggesting peace instead! Pick up an actual newspaper and study how you could improve the headings. What would be the positive side of the coin instead? Collect "good news" stories and use them to educate others as to their positive, psychological effects. Give peace a chance!

Conclusion

This report on World Peace is best utilized by those who are ready to go ahead and make a positive contribution to the world. If you find that you need to feel more secure as an individual first, before taking on the task of helping to change the world, then you may find that the Personal Security Report is more suited to your needs. The Personal Security Report addresses the issue of preventing negative outcomes. The World Peace Report takes the next step and focuses on how to manifest positive outcomes. The Personal Security Report is about undoing past karma, and the World Peace Report is about creating good karma for the future.

The outlook for world peace in the 21st century is very positive. If Ralph Bunche were able to bring about a truce in 1949, think of what many individuals working together could achieve now! He was working under pressure, but there are many persons now who are able to reflect on peaceful solutions without being under pressure. There are new technologies such as computers which can be used to bring people together. The concept of a unified world is more acceptable nowadays in people's minds and, therefore, easier to achieve. Yes, the tensions in the world may appear to be more obvious now, but that reflects the healthy process of the world's past karma unravelling, in order to pave the way for a positive, enlightened future. The World Peace Report is designed to help you discover the ways in which you can participate and contribute to world peace in this century where there is so much potential for all of us to assist in this very important endeavor.
