* Chapter 1 *******

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Pisces

You were born under the sign of PISCES and your ruling planets are Neptune and Jupiter, which endows you with great kindness, sensibility and mysticism.

Your Sun sign is MUTABLE and this will impel you to function as a COMMUNICATOR, either in thought or action. You won't feel comfortable in a leadership position, but rather in a subordinate position or service.

Pisces is a WATER sign which makes you receptive and intense. The success of your projects depends almost exclusively on your emotional state. You need to feel that others need you and that you offer a useful service.

You are romantic, idealistic and obliging. Your great sensibility leads you to feel sorry for the underprivileged and you are always willing to help and to sacrifice yourself for others. Your aspirations in life are more geared toward accomplishments in the emotional area than in the material. You are very intuitive and perceive everything that occurs around you. You will be sought out by your friends or family for the moral support you offer, which could bring a lot of tension because you tend to become too involved with their problems.

You express much affection and feeling for everyone. You enjoy nature, animals, art, and especially music. Your great artistic abilities will help you to channel your inspiration. You are very idealistic and people rarely see you as you are, which may cause you to suffer certain deceptions.

You were born to serve, to help, to collaborate, to understand and to cure. Your mission is to teach others to act from the heart and to be concerned. You will excel in humanitarian and artistic activities, in those of service and in everything where you can develop your sensibility, compassion and intuition.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to be more realistic, practical and concrete. You will have to become less fearful and allow yourself to integrate with life in all its aspects. You will have to avoid procrastination, laziness, shyness, and your tendency to evade problems which could easily lead you to take up some kind of vice. You will have to learn to organize and to manage your resources to avoid possible economic chaos. You are easily influenced and the success of your objectives depends to a large extent on the support that you receive. You have to overcome tendencies to excessive looking for approval or adopting the attitude of a victim, and assume your responsibilities.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Cancer

Others see you as a home-loving, affectionate and somewhat shy person. You project a warm and agreeable manner and avoid aggressive or violent situations. Your sensitivity transmits the sensibility of your spirit.

You are strongly attached to your family as well as your friends, which probably will be the same since your infancy. You are very protective and your strong maternal instinct will lead you to be concerned about everyone. You are always willing to help and often may worry more about problems of others than your own. Because of your great sensibility your feelings can easily be hurt. If your Sun sign doesn't indicate a little more self-confidence, there could be a tendency to loneliness and melancholia.

The profession you choose will have to offer security, stability and a sense of usefulness and that you are needed; avoid working in a noisy, tense, or very lonely place.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Sagittarius

Your emotions are fiery, intense and changing. You can't tolerate boring, very passive or monotonous activities; you love conquest. Throughout your life you will be drawn to more than one situation or difficult or impossible goals to accomplish. You despair when you are unable to get what you hope for, however, when you obtain it, you may tire of it or lose interest.

You are very curious and strongly attracted to novel situations, conquest or adventure. You are a bit immature and naive and generously share everything you have. You express your ideas freely and often neglect others' sensibility, which may cause you to say things in the wrong place or to the wrong people. Your anecdotes in this regard will be frequent. You like to meet people of different culture and ethnic origin. You love to travel, especially to strange and remote places. You feel the need to expand your horizons and dream of an accomplished future. On the negative side, you tend to procrastinate or have a lack of commitment.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to expand and to exceed your current limits. In previous lives you may have done a lot of traveling to distant lands in order to study, preach or teach philosophy, law or religion. Because of this, you are not used to staying in one relationship or in a particular place. You long to be with people you may have known sometime ago, far away from your home. It is easy for you to learn languages and you are not afraid of the unknown. You may have suffered certain injustices or may have been a witness to them. Therefore, today you have a strong feeling for the law and are protective of people in inferior situations. In this incarnation you have the need to share all your knowledge and wisdom, and seek to overcome the feeling of loneliness or isolation that you have suffered in the past.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to know, to learn, to teach, to expand your consciousness and your mental as well as your material limits. You need to express your enthusiasm, joy of living and confidence in yourself. You have to avoid dogmatism, exaggeration or self-indulgence.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Aries

Your mind is likely to be quick and sharp. You are an independent thinker and love talking about your favorite subjects. Your active and dynamic mind will not allow you to concentrate on one thing for very long. You are always ready for physical action, and you will often act or say things without thinking first. You like challenges and also will defend your position aggressively. You make up your mind rather quickly, but may not always be reasonable. You express yourself clearly and easily and also have the ability to improvise. Although your mind is sharp and inventive, this astrological position doesn't help studies, due to your great need for physical action. That is why you must learn to combine some hours of study with a physical activity. Your mental attitude tends to make you dominant. You try to prevail and are willing to take risks in business. You also will try to protect the people you love.

Your way of expressing yourself could be a bit rude and unrefined, and you may easily lose your patience or become irritated, however, you calm down quickly and do not harbor any resentment.

 Chapter 2 *****

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.

Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 10th house:

You have great ability to lead others and to excel in the professional arena. You are inclined to put a lot of energy into that and it will insure a brilliant career. You will always be in the eye of the public and are likely to become a socially renowned figure. If your activity is related to the law or to other executive positions, your future success could be lessened.

You are very proud, a bit arrogant and have strong material ambitions. You don't consider yourself accomplished unless you have reached a higher position. You will try to exceed your initial social position by reaching greater status and recognition. You will be very satisfied with your achievements. A competitive spirit, you achieve a secure and controlled foothold in your life in general.

Sun Sextile Mars:

Because you have the necessary strength to overcome any obstacle, you are attracted to enterprises that carry certain risks or those demanding quick and incisive decisions. You are very positive, open and direct with your opinions and will provide assistance to those who need it. You are likely to be a source of support for many people around you.

Sun Sextile Pluto:

You have great physical energy and are likely to be a leader in everything you become involved with. A constructive person, you use all of your strength in a positive way. Throughout your professional life you probably will experience some total and drastic changes that will make you feel better and more liberated each time. You can rely on strong powers of recuperation in case of a crisis or illness.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 6th house:

Your daily occupation is very important to you, and you are caring, sensitive and dedicated to your work. You are protective and very considerate of your co-workers or the personnel in your charge. Because of your great sensitivity, you may change jobs often. You try to find the warmth of your home in your occupational area. You could do very well in any industry serving the public or in activities related to medicine, diet or therapy.

Moon Trine Venus:

You are likely to have many friendships and will be very popular with others. You can easily relate to others and show great sensitivity in your dealings, which lets you get along well with everyone and allows you to make friends easily. You also have good taste and are very interested in artistic subjects.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Gemini on 12th house cusp

You have a tendency to completely neglect your intellectual capacity. If you have abandoned your studies, you will have to make the necessary effort to get back to them. If you have ended a career, you will have to strive for continued intellectual growth. You have to appreciate your ideas, your wit and your ability to conceive original and novel projects. You tend to be very shy and feel unable to take your place in the world. You will have to improve your way of communicating, learning to say without fear what you think and want. You have the tendency to think too much about the steps you have to take and thus end up not taking any.

This influence could bring problems with brothers or sisters (if you have them), neighbors or other relations. If you were to lend someone money, it may be difficult to get it back.

* Chapter 3 *******
Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Aquarius

Your sense of expansion manifests largely through the world of ideas. You are very imaginative and creative, and a large part of your growth and future success depends on your confidence in your own creations. You are not egotistical and are always interested in your friends or groups. You have a very distinctive manner and in general are resistant to traditions or responsibilities, which could lead you to become revolutionary and intolerant. You are very idealistic and always interested in everything that affects your society and the majority. You make no racial, class or religious distinctions.

Jupiter in 9th house:

You are interested in religion and philosophy, enjoy life abroad, other countries, cultures and languages, and definitely should travel. You would be very happy and could do well in a different country from that of your birth. If you don't settle in another place, you thoroughly enjoy each of your trips. A college education will be very important in your life; you could reach a doctorate or other outstanding title in your profession. Expansion of your life is related to the level of your knowledge.

Jupiter Opposition Uranus:

You are rebellious and critical of accepted mores or laws. You are enthusiastic, independent, extroverted and headstrong, but also restless and nervous. It is important that you learn to concentrate and direct your energies on a single purpose. You must learn moderation in all things, and avoid exaggerating and being critical.

Jupiter Square Pluto:

You can become dogmatic, exaggerating, fanatical and arrogant, could have problems with authority figures and have very little patience with others. Your strong will insures success in your goals, but you could also be disliked because of your roughness and aggressiveness. It is important that you evaluate your strong will and use it with more tact and sensitivity.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Aries

The inhibition principle affects your expression of authority. You may have a lot of energy contained or pent-up that needs to be channeled. You are egocentric and find it difficult to recognize the rights of others. Your inner fears incline you to seek safety. In time you will learn to become an independent person, not to wait for others' approval, and to make decisions on your own. You will also be very cautious and careful, and prefer orderly activities that clearly define what is right and what is wrong. To eliminate negative energies accumulated in your body, physical exercise, sports or gymnastics is recommended.

Saturn in 10th house:

Your father's image will be very influential in your life; he may sometimes lend considerable support, and other times may inhibit and frustrate your initiatives. For that reason, it wouldn't be wise to work with your father. You accept responsibilities, have many ambitions and excellent business ability. You are organized and persevering. If the relationship with your father was positive, you will have the authority and ability to lead others; otherwise, you may undervalue your own efforts, feel insecure with your choices and may not accomplish your professional goals. Your greatest frustration will be the limitation of your personal freedom because of the many responsibilities you assume. You may also abandon your goals or feel that it is very difficult to achieve what you want.

Saturn Conjunct Mercury:

You are sober, logical, methodical, careful and responsible. You are a good listener, never make frivolous comments, and prefer to work alone. Your decisions will be firm and imposed with great authority. You tend to be pessimistic, are never satisfied with your achievements or aspirations, and may get depressed easily. You are very serious and give the impression of being older than you really are. You are interested in adult subjects and act deliberately and slowly. Your pleasures primarily include family and traditional things. You need to communicate more with others and will also have to learn to relax and loosen up more, leaving aside the fear of making mistakes.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

* Chapter 4 *******
Finances, source of income.
Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Cancer on 2nd house cusp routine or doesn't gives you the possibility of ascending, you will resign. You are very popular among your co-workers and your presence will always provide a quota of happiness for others.

Moon in 6th house:

You are charismatic and considerate of the people you work with. You express strong feelings and give encouragement to others, which makes you very popular. If you don't receive the comfort or emotional response you need in your place of work, you may change jobs several times in your life. This position favors contact with the public.

* Chapter 5 *******

Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance.
