REVELATION: THE NEW ASTROLOGY

INTRODUCTION

"I can't help it. I'm an Aries. Of COURSE I have a temper." "The Moon was in Taurus. It triggered my sweet tooth. I HAD to have dessert." "Mars squared my ascendant, so of COURSE I got angry."

We've all made statements like these and, in essence, blamed the planets for our actions and the events in our lives. We look to the stars for guidance, praise them when we do well, and blame them when things don't go the way we'd like.

Don't the stars affect our lives? Don't they influence us? The stars do not MAKE us do anything any more than seeing a great pair of shoes in a store window MAKES you run in and buy them, or passing a restaurant when you are hungry MAKES you rush inside and grab a meal. There is a synchronicity to the universe that puts you intuitively in tune with the world around you.

Subconsciously, you give and receive messages that guide and direct you to your spoken or unspoken goal, thus creating those events and circumstances that fulfill your desires. You, then, are the Creator of your life. You created being at the restaurant when you were hungry so that you could eat. YOU were the cause, not the restaurant. Similarly, you created being in front of the store window in order to see the shoes. YOU were the Creator, not the shoes.

In the winter, the leaves fall from the trees. At the same time, we put on heavier clothing. The falling leaves do not MAKE us put on heavier clothing; the cold weather does. We and the trees are responding to the same cause---the change of seasons. As part of God's plan, we, and all of nature, are responding to the larger order of things. So, too, in astrology, the planets reflect what is occurring in our personal worlds and the lessons we are learning. They are not the lessons themselves, but the reflections thereof.

REVELATION: THE NEW ASTROLOGY is the implementation of the knowledge that you are the Creator of your life. As such, you are free to interpret each planet in your chart on its highest and best level, thereby being the highest and best manifestation of God you can be. YOU determine the level of functioning of your chart and the degree of happiness and success in your life. When you function on this level, your life takes on a richness of dimension it has not had before. You take the responsibility for creating your life the way you would like it to be. You see the planets as those gifts and talents you have chosen to express in this lifetime. You fulfill your limitless potential because you see what CAN be, rather than what cannot. The chart then becomes a guide, rather than the source of your happiness or unhappiness. It becomes a reflection of your own spiritual evolution. REVELATION: THE NEW ASTROLOGY is designed to assist you in that evolution. It is about love and appreciation of the God within, the acknowledgment of the Truth of who you are and, as a result, the beautiful expression of that Truth.

When you express the Truth of who you are by being your highest and best, you lift those around you and inspire THEM to be THEIR highest and best. They, in turn, inspire others, and so the Light is awakened in one person after another, spreading love, joy and peace across the face of the earth.

YOUR GIFTS, TALENTS AND ABILITIES PLANETS IN HOUSES

THE SUN

The Sun represents your greatest power and creativity in this lifetime. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you are free to express this power and creativity--that area of life in which your Light shines most brightly.

Sun in 6th house:

No task is too small for you. You are a leader in service projects. You know you can get the job done.

THE MOON

The Moon represents your sensitivity and feeling nature. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you previously sought emotional security and are now more intuitively awakened and responsive.

Moon in 7th house:

You reach people on a deep, emotional level, and speak to their deepest security needs. You are instinctively protective and nurturing of others and they trust you. By overcoming your need to take care of them you enable them to become independent and take care of themselves.

MERCURY

Mercury rules the conscious mind and communication. Wherever it is placed in the chart is the area of life about which you think and talk the most.

Mercury in 5th house:

You think about having fun and your ideas are creative. You speak to children on a level they can understand---and you speak to the child in each of us, so we have fun when we're with you.

VENUS

Venus represents the principles of love, beauty, art and sociability. Wherever it is placed in your chart is that area of life where you most easily express love and beauty.

Venus in 4th house:

The foundation of your life is love---your family feels it and your beautiful home reflects it. Your loving nature grows and increases with time.

MARS

Mars rules passion and energy. Wherever it is placed in your chart is the area of life that comes first to you, the area into which you throw yourself and your energies, the area about which you feel passionately.

Mars in 8th house:

You are constantly digging beneath the surface to discover the cause, the source. Once you discover it, your strong psychic energies give you great creative powers which you can channel and direct for the betterment of mankind.

JUPITER

Jupiter represents the principles in which you believe, and rules expansion, abundance, truth, generosity and optimism. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you are blessed, and in which you believe most strongly.

Jupiter in 10th house:

The world sees your generosity, optimism, and honesty. Your belief in your ability to lead and your joy in being in the limelight make you popular; your desire to put God's law into action in your career makes you a benevolent leader.

SATURN

Saturn rules responsibility, authority, strength and power. Wherever it falls in your chart is the area of life where you take charge, assume your responsibilities and express your greatest strength.

Saturn in 3rd house:

You see things logically, and express yourself practically and responsibly. Your words inspire strength and help others overcome the fear of expressing themselves.

URANUS

Uranus rules originality, innovation, and invention. Wherever it falls in your chart is that area of life in which you express your unique individuality.

Uranus in 10th house:

Your public image is unique and individual. You are yourself and everyone sees it. There is a strong humanitarian tone to your career, and while you work best independently, you must feel that what you are doing benefits the whole. By your example, others are inspired to express their inventive, innovative, and humanitarian qualities in their own careers.

NEPTUNE

Neptune represents spirituality, faith, and divine inspiration. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you seek to fulfill your most beautiful dreams, and where you are inspired to selflessly serve.

Neptune in 2nd house:

You are subconsciously in tune with financial currents. You have faith that money will always be forthcoming. This, along with your non-material attitude, brings it to you in abundance.

PLUTO

Pluto represents total transmutation, the death of the lower nature and subsequent emergence of the reborn God within. Wherever it falls in your chart is that area of life in which you have been transformed, where you are empowered and completely in command.

Pluto in 12th house:

Your personal power functions best behind-the-scenes where it can bring about total transformation. Your intuitive revelations are more powerful than you may be aware.

THE NORTH AND SOUTH NODES

The South Node, the Dragon's Tail, represents those qualities and abilities previously developed in past lives. The North Node, the Dragon's Head, represents those qualities and abilities to be further developed in this life.

Combining both nodes balances their energies and creates a natural flow.

Because they are 180 degrees apart, they teach us how to interact successfully with others and, therefore, affect all our relationships. Their house placements indicate those areas of life which can thrive as a result of their blending.

Nodes in 4th/10th houses:

Your ability to balance emotional needs for security with public recognition and achievement, your home with your career, means you can have the best of both.

PLANETS IN SIGNS

By seeing the positive manifestation of the planets in the signs, you are able to express your highest and best.

Sun in Pisces:

Your spirituality and faith in God give you an ethereal quality which can inspire others.

Moon in Aries:

You feel things keenly and respond quickly, clearly and directly. You do beautifully with a short-term goal.

Mercury in Aquarius:

You see what's best for the whole and come up with new ways of accomplishing things which combine the traditional with the non-traditional.

Venus in Capricorn:

You are conservative and traditional in the expression of your love, preferring to show it privately rather than publicly.

Mars in Aries:

You get directly to the point without beating around the bush. "Do it NOW" is your motto.

Jupiter in Cancer:

You are extremely protective and nurturing of those you love.

Saturn in Scorpio:

You assume your responsibility to keep private those confidences others share with you.

Uranus in Cancer:

Your domestic situation is unique and unusual because you are free from emotional restriction.

Neptune in Libra:

You adore partnership and see it as a divine union between two people, which is the mundane manifestation of the divine union between God and man.

Pluto in Leo:

Your attitude toward love, romance, and all forms of self-expression has undergone a transformation, and you are free to creatively express yourself. Your attitude toward children has also changed, and you see them as autonomous individuals.

THE NODES IN THE SIGNS

The North and South Nodes teach us the same lessons in the signs as they do in the houses.

Nodes in Cancer/Capricorn:

Your ability to balance home and career, emotional security needs with public recognition and achievement, means you can have the best of both.

ASPECTS

Traditional astrology identifies certain aspects between planets as "positive", and others as "negative". Aspects between planets are simply contacts between them. When you are coming from limitlessness, when your chart is functioning on its highest and best level, your attitude is one of loving acceptance because you know that every situation is a reflection of where you are and what your next learning experience is. As a result, every aspect is positive. By accepting planetary aspects as positive learning experiences, they function that way in your life.

Sun - Mars aspects:

Your energy is powerful and gives you the initiative to go for what you want. You act quickly and decisively. You see yourself as a winner and go straight for the goal line.

Sun - Neptune aspects:

You walk hand-in-hand with God and fulfill your dreams through service to Him. You are inspired and see beauty everywhere. You give thanks all the time for God's presence and blessings on earth.

Moon - Mercury aspects:

You are intuitive and able to express your feelings. You speak not only to the conscious mind, but to the subconscious as well. You speak to people's needs and answer their unasked questions.

Mercury - Saturn aspects:

You are intelligent, reason well, and think logically and practically. You are disciplined and assume your responsibilities.

Mercury - MC aspects:

Others see you as a natural communicator. You do well in leadership positions where you can share ideas.

Venus - Mars aspects:

You are fun-loving, sociable, and affectionate. Your sexual/love energies can harmonize, giving you a zest for living.

Venus - Jupiter aspects:

You are kind, generous and loving. Your faith and love of God are strong. Your happiness and optimism bring many friends and much happiness into your life.

Venus - Saturn aspects:

You are loyal in love, and faithful in friendship. You are practical and disciplined with money. People trust your strong sense of responsibility, and know that you fulfill your commitments.

Venus - Uranus aspects:

You are magnetic and exciting. You love humanity and attract all kinds of unique relationships and adventures. Love and money can come easily to you through unusual sources.

Venus - Neptune aspects:

You are spiritual, romantic and artistic. You are inspired by love, and happily serve the object of your affection. You fulfill your dream of divine love by serving God in all that you do.

Venus - Asc. aspects:

You are charming, lovely and will always possess a certain beauty.

Mars - Jupiter aspects:

You are sincere, straightforward, and optimistic. You act quickly, speak honestly, and willingly take a stand for your principles.

Mars - Uranus aspects:

You are courageous, pioneering, and look at life as an adventure. You act quickly and come up with new ways of doing things. You are your own person and ahead of your time. Your healing ability and psychic energies are powerful.

Mars - Neptune aspects:

You are a practical idealist---you put your dreams into action. Your greatest dream is to fulfill your mission: to serve God.

Mars - Pluto aspects:

You are confident, powerful and ambitious. Nothing can stop you when your mind is made up. You are courageous, and fearlessly tackle any challenge.

Jupiter - Saturn aspects:

You are practical, judicial, and able to combine God's law with man's law. You are honest and hard-working.

Jupiter - Uranus aspects:

Your life is fun and exciting. Your philosophy is humanitarian: you believe in the happiness of the group and give everyone the same freedom you want.

Jupiter - Neptune aspects:

You are kind, generous and compassionate. You are inspired to serve God by serving mankind.

Jupiter - Asc. aspects:

You are optimistic, confident and happy. People love to be with you because you make life fun.

Saturn - Uranus aspects:

You are a humanitarian and interact beautifully with old and young, traditional and non-traditional, acting as a link between the two.

Saturn - Pluto aspects:

You are a hard worker and natural leader. You have the ability to breathe new life into dormant projects, to reawaken interest in forgotten issues, and combine the traditional with the innovative.

Saturn - Asc. aspects:

You are responsible, dignified and mature. You are steadfast and keep your promises.

Uranus - Neptune aspects:

You are an inspired, intuitive humanitarian. You believe in the welfare of all, and come up with new ways of serving mankind.

Uranus - Asc. aspects:

You are innovative, inventive and always true to yourself.

Neptune - Pluto aspects:

You possess a powerful spiritual energy that inspires you to serve mankind. By letting go and letting God, you tap into your highest power.

Neptune - MC aspects:

You are inspired, and lead only because you want to serve God.

Pluto - MC aspects:

You are a powerful, magnetic leader and can bring about total change.

THE ASCENDANT

The ascendant is the most personal point in the chart. The sign on the ascendant gives a powerful description of you. By knowing its most positive qualities, you may use your ascendant on its highest and best level.

Ascendant in Virgo:

You are quiet, unassuming and want to be needed. No task is too small--you are happy to serve. You analyze a problem and come up with the best method for solving it.

THE CHART RULER

The ruler of the sign on the ascendant is the "chart ruler." It is a key planet in the horoscope because the ascendant is the most personal point in the chart. Its sign, house placement and the aspects it makes to other planets explain how you express YOU. (Refer to chapters: Planets in Houses, Planets in Signs and Aspects.)

CHART RULER: MERCURY

You are quick-witted, love to learn and delight in the give and take of ideas. Your natural curiosity keeps you mentally alert, which, in turn, makes you ageless.

ROVING DELEGATES

The signs on the house cusps are the principles to be learned; the cusp on which a sign falls tells us the area of life in which that particular principle will manifest.

The planetary ruler, or "roving delegate" of that sign, acts as a messenger, bringing the energy from the house it rules to the house in which it is placed. For example, if Aries is on the 3rd cusp and Mars is in the 10th, the ruler of the 3rd is in the 10th. The energy flows from the 3rd to the 10th, linking the two. The same principle applies if Taurus is on the 3rd and Venus is in the 10th, or Cancer is on the 3rd and the Moon is in the 10th.

Ruler of 1st house in 5th:

You identify with children and express a child-like enthusiasm for pleasurable activities that makes you fun to be with. You enjoy yourself and, as a result, others enjoy being with you. Your creative energies are strong and can be channeled artistically.

Ruler of 2nd house in 4th:

You share your resources and values with your family, thus providing financial as well as emotional security for them.

Ruler of 3rd house in 12th:

You think in spiritual terms and get your answers in silence and solitude. You keep your ideas to yourself and express them to others privately. You look for the subconscious motivation because your conscious mind is in tune with your subconscious.

Ruler of 4th house in 10th:

You are instinctively drawn to and feel secure in a position of leadership, authority and responsibility. Your career can be emotionally rewarding.

Ruler of 5th house in 3rd:

You think creatively, artistically and romantically. You constantly find new ways to have fun. You express your enjoyment of life, and this makes you fun to be with.

Ruler of 6th house in 10th:

You serve from a position of authority and your career is service-oriented. As a result, your work comes to the attention of the public and can inspire others.

Ruler of 7th house in 2nd:

The world is yours. As such, your resources are limitless. You reap blessings of a material nature through the public in general and your partner in particular.

Ruler of 8th house in 8th:

You are intensely interested in cause rather than effect, and want to get to the source of all creation and become one with it. By losing yourself in God you are transformed.

Ruler of 9th house in 4th:

Your need for security is fulfilled by living according to your principles, which means living according to God's laws.

Ruler of 10th house in 5th:

The authority figures in your life support your creativity and fun. Your career can involve children, creative projects and/or fun activities. You take your responsibility with children seriously, knowing that they regard you as an authority.

Ruler of 11th house in 7th:

Your friends are supportive of your partnerships. You treat your friends as your equals.

Ruler of 12th house in 6th:

You want to serve in your work. As a result, no task is too small or unimportant because you know it is needed.

A FINAL WORD

When you believe you are intelligent, you act intelligently. When you believe you are loving, you act lovingly and attract love. When you believe you are limitless, you act limitlessly and attract success. Why not accept the truth--that you were born to be happy, to succeed and to live life abundantly? By putting your attention on the most positive manifestation of your chart you create love, joy and peace in your life. It's your life---live it!
